LOS ANGELES DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION ANTICIPATES MAY 1, 2008 INTERRUPTIONS FOR DASH DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES AND COMMUTER EXPRESS ROUTES SERVING DOWNTOWN

LOS ANGELES (April 29, 2008)—The City of Los Angeles, Department of Transportation (LADOT) is anticipating DASH Downtown and Commuter Express bus service slowdowns with possible service disruptions on Thursday May 1, 2008 due to the Labor and Immigration Marches and Rally that begin assembling at 11:00 AM and continue throughout the day. Street closures and severely impacted traffic flow are expected within the area bounded by Cesar Chavez Avenue to the north, Alameda Street to the east, Pico Boulevard to the south and Hoover Street to the west.

“While we anticipate some delays, LADOT will be working closely with LAPD in order to keep Downtown area traffic moving and to keep our DASH Downtown and Commuter Express buses running as efficiently as possible,” said Rita L. Robinson, General Manager, LADOT.

Route changes will be taking place throughout the day. Since the numbers of participants and the areas where protesters may join a march is unknown, some of the routing impacts will be short-term while others will last throughout the day. LADOT will have extra supervisors on the streets of the impacted areas to assist DASH Downtown and Commuter Express riders who might be affected. In addition, LADOT’s transit web site will be updated hourly to reflect current bus information on May 1.

Specific route changes to be implemented by LADOT on Thursday, May 1, 2008 are listed below:
